Forty-five beautiful individuals that inherit their modern type through the blending of the blood of NINE GRAND CHAMPION BULLS are to be sold in this auction sale.

We Invite You . . .

We wish to extend a special invitation to those interested in the production of beef cattle to attend our Fifth Sale of Shorthorns.

We are proud of our offering as it is really a select string of herd bull prospects, bred heifers and open heifers. They are well developed, but not overdone, thrifty and ready to uphold the reputation we have established for producing choice, useful breeding cattle.

A program of consistent advertising has kept our cattle before the public and has proved beneficial to our customers as well as ourselves. Our show record is generally well known and does not need discussing here.

The same program with which we started is still in effect. Real show cattle of correct ancestry, mated with the best of our judgment, have produced consistently for us and have enabled us to stay at the top in the ever increasing competition of the show rings.

This catalog has been illustrated with individual photos of each entry to prove that each animal listed is a worthy candidate for the herd building program of their future owners. Footnotes with each pedigree will be offered for further assistance to the prospective buyer.

The bred heifers have been mated to the bulls with which we would mate them if keeping them in our herd.

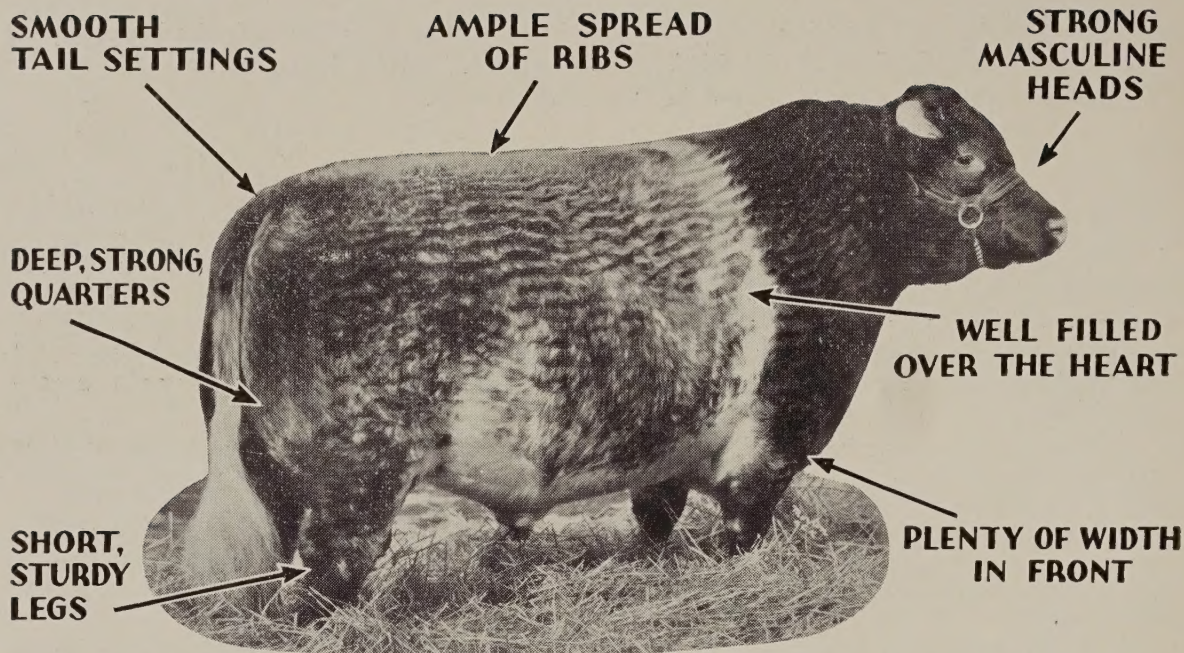

Good business requires that both seller and buyer make a profitable transaction and we are going to continue our policy of making good on guarantees one hundred per cent. We hope you can do us the honor of visiting us on November 22d and that your attendance at our sale will prove profitable to you.

MATHERS BROS.

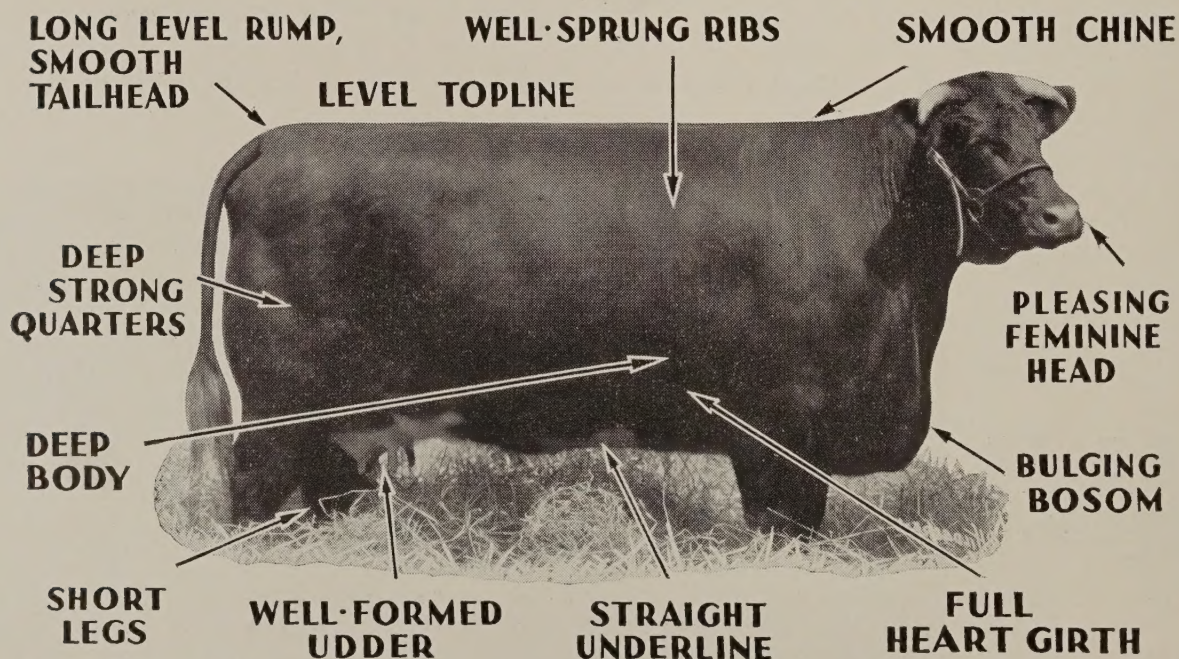

We wish to call attention to the sale of Jos. Miller's Sons at Abingdon, Ill., on the day following our sale.

Here are a group of the heifers sired by the International grand champion, Gainford Marshal. All of them are listed in this sale.

These two famous Leveledale animals were selected by The Shorthorn World to be used as key photographs in their "Lessons in Judging". At the top is shown Goldspur's Baronet 2d and below appears Leveledale Rosewood.

From the Press

The ambition of every breeder of purebred Shorthorn cattle is to establish firmly in his herd the type and conformation that finds greatest favor with show ring judges. No herd in the country has been more successful in stamping every calf with that type and conformation than the herd of Mathers Bros. The rewards that have come to them in the form of first prizes and championships are a matter of permanent record and breeders everywhere have come to recognize that the "Leveldale type" is the "Model type." Elsewhere in this catalog will be found the pictures of Sheik of Leveldale, Gainford Marshal, and Dreadnaught Lustrous, the three champion sires that are at present in service in the Leveldale Herd. In my opinion these sires are producing calves of higher quality and greater usefulness to prospective buyers than any sires previously used in this noted herd. In this sale the owners are making available the get and service of these sires. I am confident that those who make purchases will improve their positions in the industry.—Hal Longley of The Shorthorn World.

Leveldale bred bulls have made possible better Shorthorns and bigger profits for all who have used them. The bulls offered in this sale are capable of doing the same for YOU.

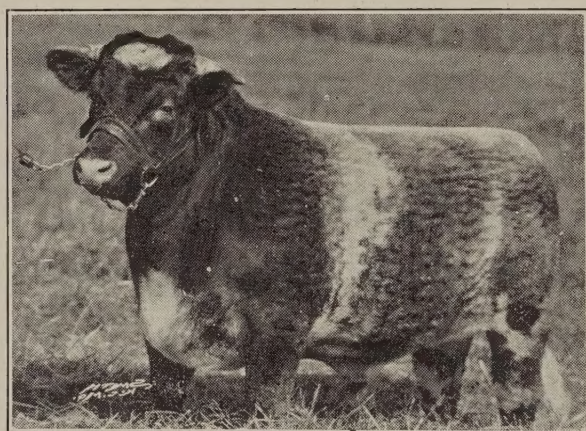

Above—A group of noted show ring winners that are now equally noted as producers of show ring winners in the Leveldale Herd.

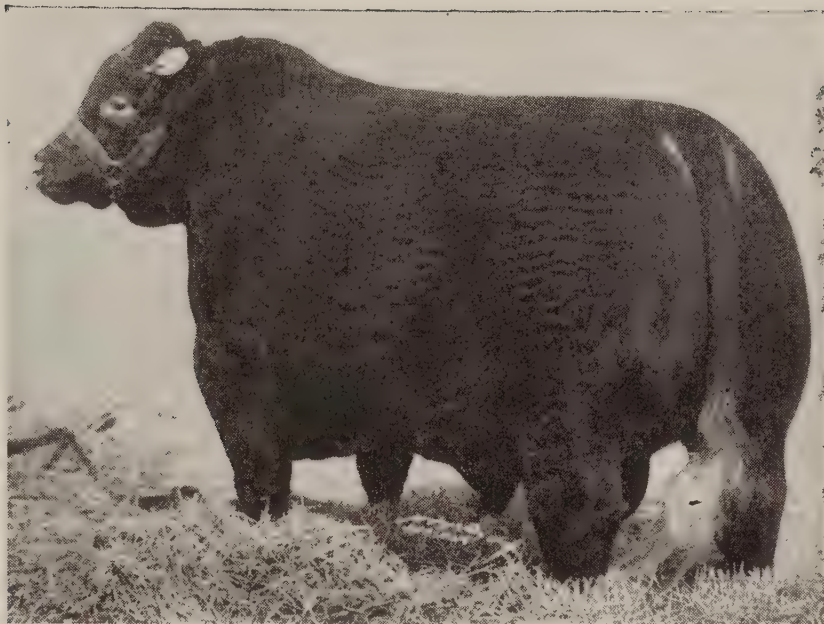

Left—Leveldale Foray, the son of Leveldale Commodore that won junior championships at the Illinois and Indiana State Fairs this year for Mathers Bros. Several great calves by the same sire will sell in this sale.

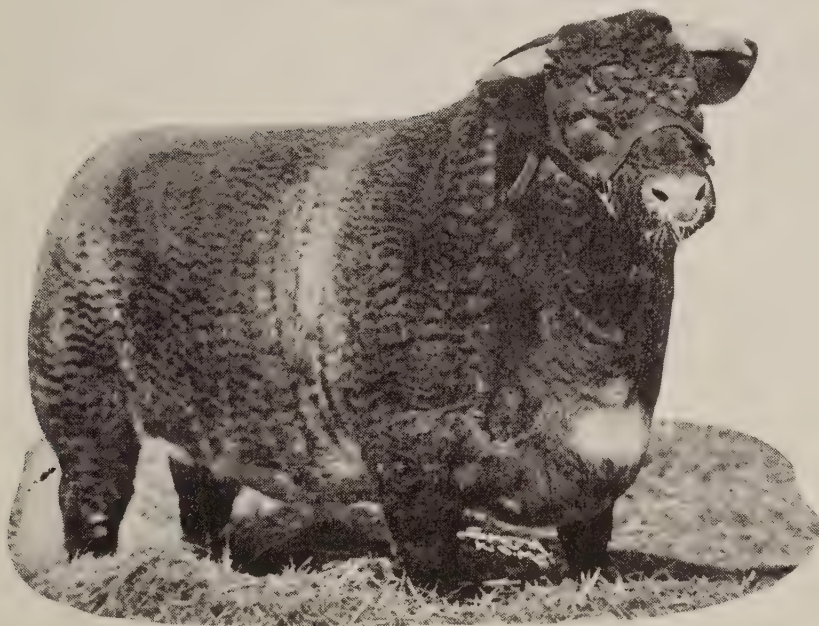

Right—Dreadnaught Stamina, the top bull in our 1937 sale. He sold to Danridge Ranch, San Antonio, Texas. The two sensational junior yearling heifers exhibited by Caraway & Sons that have stood first and second at all 1940 shows were both sired by him.

bull at the 1937 international and now proving a wonderful sire in our herd.

Right—Dreadnaught Lustrous, another member of the championship herd bull trio at Level-dale Farms. A wonderful lot of calves by him will sell in this auction.

Sires are included in Model Front Ends-- Yes!

The undefeated get of sire in 1938, all sired by Goldspur's Baronet 2d. From left to right: Dreadnaught Lustrous, Sheik of Leveldale, Leveldale Bridegroom, and Augusta of 105th. The first two are in service at Leveldale; the third is making a great show and breeding record for S. T. Whalin & Son; and the fourth is one of our greatest breeding cows.

Model Rear Ends-- Yes!

Championship Winners-- Yes!

Leveldale Rosewood 5th by Dreadnaught Lustrous, and Sheik of Leveldale by Goldspur's Baronet 2d. A great pair of champions in their own right and undefeated as a pair in 1939. Both are produced from our Rosewood family.

When They Mated Two International Grand Champions They Produced . . .

LEVELDALE ASPIRANT

Leveldale Aspirant

A product of the mating of two International grand champions. He is a grand bull and has a combination of the blood of great sires and females in his pedigree that would be difficult to duplicate. He has been used considerably in our herd and has several fine calves to his credit already. They may be inspected sale day. This bull would be retained in service but three great bulls, all now active and sure, are sufficient for our need. So, with considerable urging from Hal Longley, we decided to list this bull as an added attraction to an already big list of good bulls. This bull was camera shy and did not take a good photo. You will find him a better bull.

DREADNAUGHT ADVENT

Dreadnaught Advent

We recommend this bull to the most critical buyers. Rich colored, rugged, thick, smooth fleshed, great head and all the earmarks of a sire from a grand cow of our famous Bride family. Weaned off his own dam at nine months but is in show shape. A real good doer. We reserve the right to show this bull at the 1940 International.

LEVELDALE IDENTITY

Leveldale Identity

Thick, sappy, rugged, low set, deep red, and the same conformation as his great sire at the same age. He is out of a heavy milking dam. This cow produced Leveldale Magnet that sold to Foster M. Reeder, Mt. Victoria, Md. in the 1937 sale. If looking for a show prospect, with ability to produce "weight for age", here he is. This photo does not quite do the calf justice.

Good Cows are Important

A Few Words about the Cows shown on the Opposite Page

The breeding program practiced on this farm since 1922 has been one of mating great show bulls to the best females obtainable within our means. The progeny of these matings has been shown consistently against the best cattle other breeders could produce. Thus we avoid "Getting in a rut" with our program. Our greatest show cows have been our best breeding cows. The photograph of Belle O'Leveldale was selected by The Shorthorn World as the model type in their great female issue. She produced our greatest sire to date, Leveldale Dreadnaught, whose get won first at the International and the produce of his daughters sired by Goldspur's Baronet 2d later won the same award.

Leveldale Bride 2d, a junior champion consistently as a calf and yearling and a first prize 3-year-old everywhere, is the dam of our junior champion bull of 1940, Leveldale Foray. She also produced Leveldale Progress that sold at $725 to Morton Kimmell in 1937.

Leveldale Rosewood, an International champion as a heifer calf and a consistent winner for four years, has produced for us Leveldale Rosewood 5th, a winner of many championships; Leveldale Aspirant, senior yearling in this year's show herd and Leveldale Rosewood 10th, junior calf in this season's show herd and probably the best heifer we have yet bred.

We believe a good cow is just as important as a good bull if one is trying to produce the best and we have been complimented many times by having visitors to our herd pronounce it the best herd of cows they have ever seen.

GAINFORD MARSHAL calves in the bluegrass at Leveldale Farms.

THOSE who are desirous of founding new herds or of improving already well established herds should study carefully the blood lines represented in this catalog. Each one of the fashionable Scotch pedigrees presented is lined with stock bulls that have made history for the breed. Mathers Bros. contribution to the tops of these pedigrees has been NINE CHAMPION STOCK BULLS used in succession in the herd. Hence, the type, character and individuality, all of which you are sure to admire in each animal on sale day, is BRED INTO THEM. Surely these are factors which should prompt you to attend the sale and BUY.

Leveldale Blossom 6th
